¹The wick-ed flee when no man pur-su-eth: but the right-eous are bold as a li-on..

6

²For the trans-gres-sion of a land ma-ny are the prin-ces there - of: but by a man of un-der-stan-ding and know-ledge the state there-of shall be pro - longed. ³A poor man that op-pres-eth the poor is like a sweep-ing rain which leav-eth no food.

11

15

19

⁴They that for-sake the law praise the wick-ed: but such as keep the law con-tend with them.

24

5E - vil men un-der-stand not judg-ment: but they that seek the LORD un-der-stand all things.

29

6Bet-ter is the poor that walk-eth in his up - right-ness, than he that is per-verse in his ways, though he be rich. 7Who-so kee-peth the law is a wise son: but he that is a com-pa-nion of ri-o-tous men sham-eth his fa-ther. 8He that by u-su-ry and un-just gain in-creas-eth his sub-stance, he shall

34

39

45

ga-ther it for him that will pi - ty the poor. 9He that turn-eth a - way his ear from 50

hear-ing the law, e-ven his prayer shall be a - bo-mi - na - tion. 10Who-so caus-eth the 56

 right-ous to go as-tray in an e-vil way, he shall fall him-self in-to his own pit:

62
 but the up-right shall have good things in pos-ses-sion. ¹¹The rich man is 67

 wise in his own con-ceit; but the poor that hath un-der-stand-ing search-eth him out. ¹²When

72
 right-ous men do re-joice, there is great glo-ry: but when the wick-ed rise, a man is hid-den.

77
¹³He that cov-ereth his sins shall not pros-per: but who-so con-fes-seth and for-sak-eth them

82
 shall have mer-cy. ¹⁴Hap-py is the man that fear-eth al-way: but he that har-den-eth his heart shall fall in-to mis - chief. _____ ¹⁵As a roar-ing li-on, and a rang-ing bear;

87

92

so is a wick-ed rul-er o-ver the poor peo-ple. _____ ¹⁶The prince that want-eth un-der-stand-ing is

98

al-so a great op-pres-sor: but he that hat-eth co-vet-ous-ness shall pro-long his days. _____ ¹⁷A

103

man that do-eth vi-o-lence to the blood of a-ny per-son shall flee to the pit; let no man

108

stay him. _____ ¹⁸Who-so walk-eth up-right-ly shall be saved: but he that is per-verse in his ways shall fall at once. _____ ¹⁹He that til-leth his land shall have plen-ty of bread: but he that fol-low-eth af-ter vain

113

118

per-sons shall have po-ver-ty e-nough. ²⁰A faith-ful man shall a-bound with bles-sings:

123

but he that mak-eth haste to be rich shall not be in-no-cent. ²¹To have re-spect of per-sons

128

is not good: for for a piece of bread that man will trans-gress. ²²He that hast-eth to be rich hath an e-vil eye, and con-si-der-eth not that po-ver-ty shall come up-on him.

133

138

²³He that re-buk-eth a man af-ter-wards shall find more fa-vour than he that flat-ter-eth with the tongue. ²⁴Who-so rob-beth his fa-ther or his mo-ther, and sa-ith, It is no transgres-sion; the same is the com-pa-nion of a des-tro - yer.

144

156 $\text{♩} = 130$

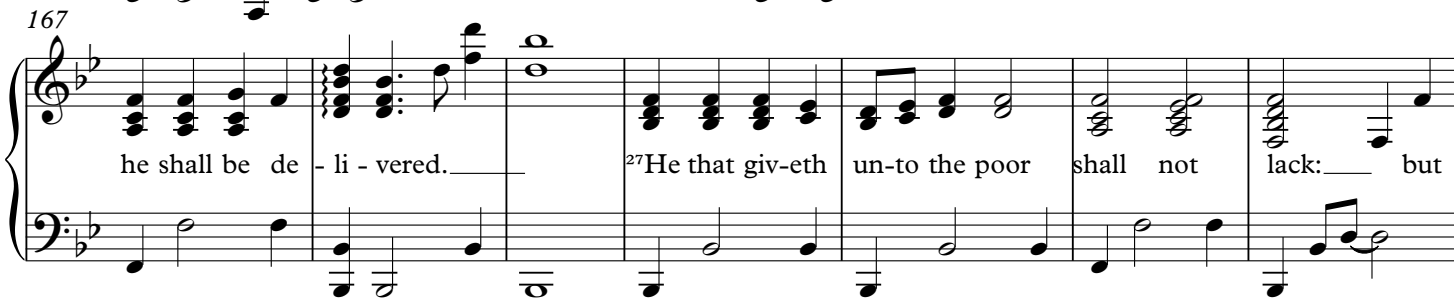

²⁵He that is of a proud heart stir-reth up strife: but he that put-teth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat. ²⁶He that trust-eth in his own heart is a fool: but who-so walk-eth wise-ly,

161

167

he shall be de - li - vered. ²⁷He that giv-eth un-to the poor shall not lack: but he that hi-deth his eyes shall have ma - ny a curse. ²⁸When the wick-ed rise, men hide them-selves: but when they pe - rish, the right-eous in - crease.

174
